CAWSAND FERRY

LINKING PLYMOUTH & CORNWALL

Service operates DAILY: 29th March to Thursday 31st October 2024 (inclusive)
Weather, tide & circumstances permitting.

Unspoilt by time, the historical fishing and smuggling villages of Cawsand & Kingsand offer secluded beaches, spectacular walks and magnificent scenery in this forgotten corner of Cornwall. You can be sure of a warm welcome in the many pubs, restaurants, shops & cafe's.

The Cawsand Ferry provides regular daily crossings between the Cornish villages of Cawsand & Kingsand on the Rame Peninsula to Plymouth's famous Barbican. Our spectacular 30 min crossing is the perfect way to visit this beautiful part of Cornwall, go sight-seeing or simply enjoy shopping in & around Plymouth.

Please be aware; that embarking/disembarking the Cawsand Ferry can be challenging at times, due to the use of a removable ramp/footway at Cawsand Beach. The crew have the right to refuse access if they feel this cannot be achieved safely.

CREMYLL TO CAWSAND/KINGSAND COASTAL WALK

"The Best Coastal Walk In The Southwest"

Why not hop on & hop off one of our Ferries, Cawsand or Cremyll, to enjoy a beautiful 90 minute Coastal Walk, passing through the Edgumbe Estate, or continuing on to Penlee/ Rame Head and along the breath-taking Whitsand Bay. See centre map.
